

Eligibility Criteria

The Al Aman Fund for the Future of Orphans targets two categories of orphaned youth:

1. Boarding Orphans: Individuals who have lost, or been deprived of, normal family care, including those who have lost family support or are of unknown parentage, and who fall under the care of the Ministry of Social Development due to the absence of a stable family environment. They are referred to nationally under the term "orphans" in Jordan, in accordance with the applicable legislation, regulations, instructions, and relevant official authorities.

2. Non-Boarding Orphans: Orphans who have lost one or both parents and live with a surviving parent or a member of the extended family under difficult financial circumstances.

Non-Boarding Orphans

General Provisions:

1. Priority is given to cases of children who have lost both parents.
2. Priority is given to applicants from poverty pockets in the governorates, as identified by the Department of Statistics and the Ministry of Social Development.
3. Priority is given to beneficiaries of the National Aid Fund and approved official support funds.
4. The applicant must be identified by one of the charitable associations accredited by the Fund within their area of residence, if any exist.
5. An academic/vocational scholarship is provided by the Fund, covering registration fees, credit-hour fees, and graduation fees, except in special cases which are reviewed by the Review and Audit Committee and decided upon by the General Manager.
6. The applicant must be financially unable to cover their educational expenses, as determined by the procedures and forms set by the Fund.
7. The Fund does not pay educational costs retroactively, nor does it reimburse beneficiaries for terms that the beneficiary has already paid for.
8. The scholarship application must be submitted via the Fund's website within the announced time period.

9. The applicant bears full responsibility for the accuracy and validity of the data submitted to obtain the scholarship. In case the submitted data or documents were found invalid, the Fund reserves the right to take any action it deems appropriate.
10. Compliance with the scholarship's terms and conditions.
11. If the Fund receive a grant from any donor entity that includes special provisions, specific conditions, or customized requirements differing from the approved forms and procedures, the Fund reserves the right to prepare and adopt special forms and procedures suited to the nature and requirements of that grant, based on a recommendation from the Programs Director and approval of the General Manager.
